Experience the Transformative Power of Meditation
Thursday, August 1 @ 7 pm
Meditation can be used as a tool to benefit our body, mind and inner being. It helps to slow down the inane chatter of our minds and invigorates a positive energy in our bodies which has a direct effect on our well-being. Join Zelma Chamberlain, M.Ed. longtime meditator for this powerful program. There will be a short meditation sitting.

Illinois Watercolor Society Meeting & Demonstration
Saturday, August 3 @ 10 am
Featured artist: Fatima Figueiredo
From the moment Fatima saw her first watercolor, this form of art has been an obsession. Finding her inspiration in nature, Fatima takes photos, draw sketches and does whatever else is necessary for a great composition.

Fred & Ginger: Forever Dancing
Saturday, August 10 @ 2 pm
Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers are easily considered to be the most iconic dancing duo in cinematic history. Astaire and Rogers danced their way through many beloved films while pioneering aspects of dance in cinema. Join film historian Annette Bochenek for a presentation about Astaire and Rogers's early years, their Hollywood careers and legacy. Sponsored by the Friends of OBPL

Jazz Piano Concert
Saturday, August 17 @ 2 pm
CANCELED
Yvonne Faddis Stroud returns to perform her favorite jazz piano arrangements for everyone to enjoy.

John T. McCutcheon: Dean of American Cartoonists
Wednesday, August 21 @ 1 pm
From 1903-1946, McCutcheon’s editorial cartoons graced the pages of The Chicago Tribune, winning the Pulitzer Prize in 1932 (the 1st cartoonist to win the Pulitzer). College of DuPage instructor, Frank Serafino, presents the life and art of McCutcheon, sharing with us 12 original drawings from his personal collection.

The Power of Human: How Our Shared Humanity Can Help Us Create a Better World
Saturday, August 24 @ 2 pm
Join local psychologist, Adam Waytz, as he discusses the ideas contained in his book. An urgent yet hopeful analysis of the surge in dehumanization and how we can reverse it. He reveals how, by humanizing intimacy and conflict, we can strengthen relationships with both our friends and enemies.
