Press Release

Large Number of Residents turn out for Installation of New Board of Trustees at First Board Meeting

Oak Brook, Illinois (May 21, 2009) – Newly-elected Village of Oak Brook Trustees Stelio Aktipis, Dr. Mark M. Moy and Elaine Zannis were sworn-in by Justice Jorgensen of the 2nd Appellate Court on May 12, 2009 at Oak Brook Bath & Tennis Clubhouse before the Board of Trustees, Board Members from the Chamber of Commerce, community leaders, representatives from local businesses, and residents. The brief ceremony, led by Rev. Daniel Meyer, as well the Board meeting that followed are available for viewing online at http://www.oak-brook.org/dep_news/general_news.shtml.

"I want to tell you how fortunate I feel to have a Board like this to work with, declared President John W. Craig. "We have half the Board with doctorates, ranging from PhD to MD, and on the other hand we have three very talented business people."

The May 12th Board meeting concluded by giving direction to the Village Attorney to begin negotiation for the outsourcing of the B&T Grill in an effort to improve quality, customer service and improve revenues - reinforcing the Board's philosophy of fiscal responsibility. The Village Board will continue to focus on village finances and will be discussing items that affect the 2009 Budget in June.
